AN ADVICE.

TOVCHING

The Currancie in payment of our Engliſh Gold.

AS ALSO,

A Table of the ſeuerall Worths of all Pieces vncurrant through want of weight, at his Majeſties Exchanges at London.

Calculated according to the Number of Graines wanting.

Moſt Neceſſarie for all.

That the true Value of the vncurrant Coyne may bee knowne.

LONDON.
Printed by B. A. and T. F. for Ben. Fiſher, and are to bee ſold at his Shop at the ſigne of the Talbot without Alderſgate.

To the Reader.

Here hauing beene much doubt made (occasioning much difficultie, delay, and differences in payments of Money) whether the vn-euen pieces of Gold, viz.

XXII. Shillings pieces, &c. were Currant with ſuch Allowances of Graines, as heretofore, before the laſt Proclamation. To cleere ſuch ſcruples; and declare the ſeuerall worths of all vncurrant Coyne exceeding the Remedies. To the end. All may know, what ſuch lightned Pieces will truely make: whereby they may bee much eaſed.

To The Reader.

I haue Calculated the prises of the same, and what it will make at his Maiesties Exchanges; for the ease and direction of All men, that haue occasion to deliuer or receiue the same.

THE ADVICE.

WHEREAS, By his late Majesties Proclamation made for suppressing of light Gold, amongst other things and reasons therof (therin more largely expressed) it is Contayned in these words, VIZ.

AND

AND therefore, Wee doe hereby ſtraightly Charge and forbid, vpon pain of Contempt & incurring our High diſpleaſure ; That no perſon or perſons, from and after Midſomer next comming, in any Countie of our Realme, doe preſume to take, receiue, or deliuer in payment, any Piece of our Gold Coyne (and formerly by vs aduanced) at the rates aforeſaid, beeing clipped, waſhed, or any other way vnlawfully diminiſhed, or lacking of his juſt weight therof, otherwiſe, then according to the Rates hereafter ſeuerally expreſſed. And with the Allowance formerly ſet down in our former Proclamation. That is to ſay:

to

1. In euery Piece Currant for Thirtie-three-ſhillings, the Remedie ſhall not exceed, Foure Graines and a halfe.

2. Twentie-two-ſhilling Pieces, ſhall not exceed, Three Graines.

3. Sixteene-ſhillings Six-pence Pieces, ſhall not exceed, Two Graines and a halfe.

4. Ele-

4. Eleuen-ſhillings Pieces, ſhall not exceed, Two Graines/~~and a halfe~~.

5. Fiue-ſhilling Six-pence Pieces, ſhall not exceed, Two Graines.

6. Two ſhillings Nine-pence Pieces, ſhall not exceed, Halfe a Graine.

All which Remedies ſhall bee allowed in euery Piece accordingly, and no deduction or abatement to bee made for the ſame, but to paſſe as if it were of full weight and juſt value.

value. But if any ſuch piece of Coyne lacking of his weight aboue the ſaid Remedies, ſhall from and after Midſommer next comming, bee offered in payment by any perſon or perſons within this our Realme; Our will and pleaſure then is, That for ſo many Graines more or leſſe as the Piece ſhall bee lighter then the Remedies ſo as aforeſaid allowed. Euery perſon or perſons, that ſo offereth the ſame in payment, ſhall alſo, at the ſame time pay and allow; after the rate of Two-pence the Graine to him that receiueth

it,

it, for euery Graine wanting aboue the Remedies reſpectiuely: AND euery Perſon or perſons, vnto whom the ſame is offered to bee payed, with theſe allowances, ſhall accept the ſame in payment, as if the ſame were full and juſt weight, any thing Contayned in our former Proclamation to the contrary notwithſtanding.

PROVIDED alwayes, That if any ſuch Piece of Gold ſo offered in payment, after the time aforeſaid, ſhall want aboue the number of ſo many more Graines then are allowed for for the Remedies reſpectiuely. (As if the Piece of Twentie and two ſhillings, ſhall want more then three Graines aboue the Remedie allowed, or the piece of Eleuen-ſhillings, more then two Graines aboue the Remedie. And ſo of all the reſt reſpectiuely.) Then our will and pleaſure is, that in all payments betwixt partie and partie, the ſame ſhall not onely be refuſed without all redemption, but that euery perſon or perſons, to whom ſuch tender of payments bee made, ſhall brand the ſame, by ſtriking a hole in euery of the ſaid Pieces ſo offered fered in payment as likewiſe of any other Peice as ſhall bee found Sowdered or vnlawfully Imbaſed: Rendring thoſe Peices ſo ſtricken thorough then preſently after to the owners, according as was ordered by a Proclamation made by our deare Siſter and late Queene ELIZABETH, in the Nine and twentieth yeere of her Raigne vpon like occaſion. Giuen, &c.

By

touching light Gold.

By this Proclamation it is cleere ; That euery Piece not wanting in weight aboue the Remedies declared in the ſaid Proclamation, viz.

Euery Piece of --

Shil. Pence.		Grainet.
XXXIII.s.	Not wanting aboue -	9.Grai.
XXII.s.		6 Grai.
XVI.s.vj.d.		5.Grai.
XI.s.		4.Grai.
V.s.vj.d.		2.Grai.
II.s.ix.d.		1.Grai.

Is Currant, and then was and ought to bee accepted in payment with abatement of Two-pence a Graine, for euery graine exceeding the Remedie allowed.

Now there is no alteration made concerning theſe Pieces, by the laſt Proclamation, but they doe & remaine in the ſame ſtate and degree, (Money payable vpon the ſame allowance or deduction of Graines,) as they were before the ſame. The words of which laſt Proclamation for ſo much as concerns the Currancie of Coyne being, as followeth :

ITEM,

ITEM, to the end to avoyd and put to our Coyne all Gold money currant within this our Realme, being clipped, waſhed, or by any other meanes vnlawfully diminiſhed, or lacking of the iuſt weight thereof, otherwiſe then according to the rates hereafter ſeuerally expreſſed, And with the allowance of the Remedies ſet downe in diuers former Proclamations of Queene ELIZABETH, and of our late Father of bleſſed memorie. That is to ſay:

1. In euery Piece Currant for Thirtie Shillings, the Remedie and abatement, ſhall not exceed, Foure Graines and a halfe.

2. The Twentie ſhilling Pieces, ſhall not exceede, Three Graines.

3. The Fifteene-ſhillings Piece, ſhall not exceed, Two graines and a halfe.

4. The Tenne-ſhillings Piece, ſhall not exceede, Two Graines.

5. The

5. The Fiue-ſhillings piece, ſhall not exceed, One Graine.

6. The Two-ſhillings Six-pence piece, the Remedie and abatement ſhall not exceed, Halfe a Graine.

All which Remedies ſhall be allowed in euery Piece accordingly, the ſame wanting no more, being to paſſe as if it were of full weight and juſt value. But if any ſuch piece of Coyne ſhall lacke of the true weight thereof, aboue the Remedies before expreſſed. Then wee doe ſtraightly Charge and

Command, That no perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, ſhall accept or offer them in payment, vpon any allowance or defatuation for want of weight whatſoeuer, but that the ſame be and ſtand denied downe, and vncurrant. And that it ſhall be lawfull for any perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, when offer of payment of any the ſaid pieces lightned as aforeſaid ſhall be made to brand the ſame by ſtriking a hole in euery of them ſaid pieces ſo offered in payment, rendring the pieces ſo branded, then preſently after to the owners thereof againe. Which ſaid Lightned or Branded Pieces, Our pleaſure is, ſhall bee brought or Carried to our Exchanges or Mint, there againe to bee molten and conuerted into Coyne.

This laſt Proclamation, expreſly and by plaine termes, Extends vnto, and Comprehends only ſuch Pieces, which at the time of the ſaid Proclamation were Currant, for, and at the rates expreſſed in the ſame, viz. At XXX. ſhillings, XX. ſhillings, XV. ſhillings, X ſhillings, V ſhillings, and II. ſhillings, vj. pence. And therefore, for as much as all vn-cuen Pieces of Iacobus, halfe Quarters, and Eights, were at the time of the ſaid laſt Proclamation Currant for other values,

viz. For XXXIII. ſhillings, XXII. ſhillings. XVI. ſhillings vj. pence, XI. ſhillings, V. ſhillings vj. pence, and II. ſhillings ix. pence. It is moſt cleere, That the ſame Pieces are not at all comprehended, or altered by the ſaid laſt Proclamation; but doe and are now currant and payable vpon the ſame allowances and deductions for want of weight, as they were before the publiſhing of the ſame. And the rather, For that there were then pieces Currant

for

for the values mentioned in the laſt Proclamation whereof the ſame did diſpoſe, leauing the others to bee in ſuch degree and and ſtate as they were: As alſo for that, The principall intention might bee to preſerue vpright his Majeſties, euen Coynes (whereof great Quantities haue bin Coyned) being yet in good ſtate; without much regard being had to the other, foraſmuch as no more of the ſaid vneuen Coynes are purpoſed to bee Coyned.

AND

AND therefore, the Tender of ſuch Pieces, vpon allowance and deduction for want of weight agreeable to the former Proclamation, is good and not confronted by the latter? But ought to bee accepted of vpon all payments of bonds, bills of Exchange, and contracts, and duties, whatſoeuer and whereſoeuer; The partie refuſing ſuch payments not onely endamaging himſelfe by the delay: but incurring the paine of the former Proclamation, by refuſall ſall of ſuch monyes, as his Maieſtie makes Currant by his Proclamation. And this agreeth with the generall Opinion of Lawyers, And the moſt vſuall practiſe of all men.
